General Terms and Conditions of Sale

1. Scope
These General Terms and Conditions of Sale apply without restriction or reservation to all sales concluded between Millennium Center SA («Millennium») and the customer (together the «Parties») for an event.

2. Event contract
The commitment is valid and final when the contract is signed by the Parties, and the defined deposits are paid within the specified time frames. The reservation is considered final after Millennium receives the deposits.

3. Prices
Prices are in Swiss Francs, including VAT. The applicable prices are those on the price list in effect at the time of the contract. Any additional non-contracted services are billed according to the price list in effect at the time of the order.

4. Invoicing and payment
The customer commits to paying the deposit amounts within the specified time frames. Invoices are payable in Swiss Francs by bank transfer or credit card. In case of non-payment within the agreed time, Millennium reserves the right to cancel the event without further obligation. Invoices are due within 10 net days. Beyond this period, Millennium is entitled to charge a 5% late payment interest.

5. Cancellation fees
In case of total or partial cancellation, the required notice is as follows:
- from the date of contract signing: 20% of the contracted turnover
- 45 days before the event: 50% of the contracted turnover
- 15 days before the event: 80% of the contracted turnover
- 7 days before the event: 100% of the contracted turnover

6. Number of participants
Ten days before the event, the final number of participants must be communicated to Millennium. A variation of up to 10% is allowed up to 7 working days before the event. This number serves as the basis for billing. From the contract signing to 45 days before the event, a decrease of up to 25% of the number of participants is allowed.

7. Catering
All catering for an event is exclusively reserved for Millennium's catering service.

8. Corkage and service
During events held at Millennium that include products provided by the customer and require service, Millennium charges corkage or service fees. Millennium reserves the right to refuse to serve a product it has not provided at any time.

9. Service hours
From midnight onwards, an additional charge per started hour is levied for service costs, for reception and security personnel.

10. Food allergies
Our dishes are prepared in kitchens where various allergenic substances may be present. Our team is available for information regarding ingredients that may cause food allergies. Despite all precautions, we cannot guarantee the complete exclusion of allergens.

11. Sales of alcohol to minors
For the protection of youth, Swiss law prohibits the sale of wine, beer, and cider to those under 16 years of age, as well as spirits, aperitifs, and alcopops to those under 18 years of age. Millennium disclaims all responsibility for guests in this regard.

12. Use, repair, non-return
It is prohibited to modify rented equipment without Millennium's prior authorization. The customer undertakes not to attach or affix anything to the walls and windows, including no pins, glue, staples, paint, or any other elements that would alter the original item. Damaged or unreturned equipment will result in additional charges for cleaning or refurbishment to its replacement value.

13. Property liability and insurance
The customer is responsible for the members of their group as well as any external service providers they have commissioned. The customer is liable for any damage noticed by Millennium, including damage, breakage, theft, or others. Millennium disclaims all liability regarding the customer's belongings and property values, as well as any accidents or damages that may occur during the event. The customer must have adequate liability and theft, fire, and water damage insurance during the use of Millennium's premises and for their belongings. Upon request by Millennium, the customer must provide proof of sufficient insurance coverage.

14. Safety regulations
The customer must comply with and ensure that all members of their group and any subcontractors or suppliers follow the safety regulations applicable within Millennium's premises, including:
- Smoking is prohibited throughout the building
- The use of smoke machines without prior authorization, including recreational ones used for entertainment, is prohibited
- The use of flammable gases or liquids is prohibited
- Keeping the building's entrances and exit routes secure, clean, and unobstructed is necessary

In this regard, suppliers commissioned by the customer must strictly follow the instructions given by Millennium's staff.

15. Closing time
For events held as private parties, the closing time is no later than 4:00 a.m., and musical entertainment must cease by 3:45 a.m. at the latest.

16. Media content
The display of media on Millennium's screens must adhere to the specifications outlined by Millennium. In case of non-compliance with the formats and/or media delivery deadlines, Millennium disclaims any responsibility for a failure to display during an event.

17. Cloakrooms
Millennium disclaims all responsibility in case of theft or damage to personal belongings.

18. Parking and delivery
Millennium disclaims all responsibility for vehicle theft, damage, and property inside the building. Deliveries must be announced and take place at the unloading dock located on level -3 of the building. Vehicles are only allowed to park during loading and unloading.

19. External service providers
External services are subject to Millennium's approval. External service providers must accept the «External Service Provider» charter or risk being rejected. In all cases, Millennium disclaims all responsibility for theft or damage to equipment provided, delivered, and ordered by the customer. The equipment brought must comply with current safety standards.

20. Logistics services
Assistance by Millennium personnel is mandatory for unloading, loading, handling, and moving the equipment provided and delivered to Millennium by the customer. Charges are billed at a rate of CHF 95 per handler per hour for logistics assistance and CHF 120 per hour for the rental of lifting equipment. The customer is responsible for damages caused by their service providers.

21. Force majeure
In the event of an extraordinary, unforeseeable, and insurmountable external event that makes it impossible to conduct the event, Millennium will propose to reschedule the event at no cost within 12 months. Any deposits made will be retained.

22. Advertising material
The customer must obtain prior authorization from Millennium to place advertising material in public areas and building entrances. No displays are allowed on interior and exterior walls without prior authorization from Millennium. Damages are the responsibility of the customer. The customer cannot use the name and logo of Millennium without prior agreement.

23. Applicable law
Swiss law is the sole applicable law. Any potential dispute is brought before the competent courts of Lausanne.
